

The Christian's Superpower is Love – I John 2:7-11

The commandment to love is both _____ and _____ (2:7-8).

The true Christian will be marked by _____ but the false Christian will continue to be marked by _____ (2:9-11).

Questions for Discussion & Application:

1. What was difficult, helpful, or challenging from this study of God's Word?
2. Why is the command to love both old and new? (See John 13:34-35)
3. Why would love be such an essential distinguishing mark of Christians?
4. How did Jesus display His love? (See John 13:1-17 and John 15:12-13)
5. What are some specific ways that God has called you to follow the example of Jesus' love in your own life?
6. In what sense does hatred blind a person's eyes? What are these persons blinded to?
7. What examples have you seen in your own life of other Christians loving you in a Christ-like way?
8. Before becoming a Christian, how was your life marked by hatred instead of love?

9. As a Christian, what has helped you to grow in love?

10. What is the power and motivation behind our being people marked by love?