

Good for It – Psalm 81

1. God appeals to our appetites.

2. God appeals to our abilities.

3. God appeals to our capacity.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What was surprising, confusing, or helpful from this passage?
2. Why is it a great lie that God is the enemy of our happiness? How have you been tempted to believe this lie?
3. What does it mean to “open your mouth” to the Lord? How do you need to do this in your own life?
4. Are there areas where you need to repent of attitudes that have hindered you from opening your mouth wide to the Lord?
5. How does the Lord “fill” us? How have you experienced the Lord filling you?
6. Are you taking in Christ to the degree that He offers Himself to you?
7. How is the Lord calling you to open your mouth/heart more “wide” to Him?

Memory Verse: Psalm 81:10

Read for Next Sunday: John 16:5-33