

Should you be angry? - Jonah 4:1-11

God questioned Jonah about his anger over God's mercy to Nineveh (4:1-4).

God provided an object lesson to correct Jonah's anger over God's mercy to Nineveh (4:5-9).

God rebuked Jonah for his anger over God's mercy to Nineveh (4:10-11).

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What was confusing, convicting, or encouraging from this passage?
2. Did Jonah have any legitimate reason to be angry? How have you struggled with inappropriate anger?
3. What does Jonah's anger reveal about him? Consider what your own anger may reveal about yourself.
4. God provided an object lesson with the withered plant to help Jonah see how he was wrong. What object lessons has God provided for you to learn from?
5. What do we learn about the character of God in this chapter? How have you experienced God's grace, mercy, and love?
6. How can we reflect God's grace, mercy, and love to other undeserving sinners like ourselves?