

A Song of Trust in the Wait – Isaiah 26:1-9

1. The city with salvation for its walls has gates that are open to the righteous (verses 1-2).
2. The mind that is trusting God's power and plan is kept in perfect peace (verses 3-6).
3. The path of the righteous is marked by obedience to the LORD as an expression of waiting for Him in faith (verses 7-9).

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What was confusing, convicting, or encouraging from this study of scripture?
2. Judah needed to trust God and His promises (as seen in chapters 13-25) even as the nation was suffering at the hands of Assyria and Jerusalem was threatened by this empire. In what difficult circumstances do you need to trust God and His promises?
3. What city is described in verses 1-2? How does Revelation 21:22-27 shed light on this?
4. According to verse 3-4, what will give us peace in our minds? Where are you struggling to have peace? What do you need to do about this? (See Philippians 4:6-7)
5. Verses 8-9 describe God's name and renown being the desire of our hearts and describe a soul that yearns and longs for Him? How is this like or not like your experience with God?
