The Suffering Servant Isaiah 52:13-53:12

The Servant will be despised and rejected ____ us.

The Servant will choose to suffer as a perfect substitute ____ us.

The Servant will be vindicated and given the reward ____ us.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What was confusing, convicting, or encouraging from this study of scripture?
2. Why are the predictions of our passage rightly seen as miraculous? How does this encourage and strengthen your faith?
3. What is meant by being “healed” by the Servant’s wounds in Isaiah 53:5? How do we experience this healing now? How will we experience it in the future?
4. Why was the Servant’s bloody death necessary for God to count sinners as righteous?
5. Has God sprinkled you with the Servant’s blood, healed you, and counted you as righteous? If yes, how does this assurance of being forgiven impact the way you live your daily life?
