

Gifts Received are to be Poured Out in Love – I Corinthians 12:27-13:3

We are each individual members of Christ's body.

God has appointed different gifts in the Church and we do not all have the same gifts.

Our different gifts mean nothing without love.

Application & Discussion Questions

1. Do you have any questions about the meaning of today's passage?
2. Since all Christians are gifted and needed members of Christ's body, what does this imply about how we should relate to one another?
3. What are the different broad categories of gifts that we see God has given to the Church?
4. What is the difference between a natural talent and a Spirit-given gift?
5. How has God gifted you for serving others? How are you using your gifts to serve others?
6. What is love? Why is it absolutely essential that love motivate the use of our gifts?
7. How does this passage challenge you personally?