

Godly Womanhood – Proverbs 31:10-31

---

She is a nurturer who cares for the needs of those around her, including her family, her servants, and the poor and needy.

She speaks with wisdom and kindness.

She fears the LORD.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have from today's passage?
2. What godly women have had an impact upon your life? How were these godly women like the woman described in Proverbs 31?
3. Women, what descriptions of a godly woman are most convicting to you? Why?
4. Men, who are the women in your life that you are thankful for? How do these women bless and encourage you? How can you better communicate this thankfulness to them?
5. Why is godly womanhood so important in the home, church, and society?
6. How can we better honor the God-given roles of both women and men in our confused times?