

God's Mysterious Plan - Romans 11:25-33

---

God's mysterious plan keeps us from being wise in our own sight.

God's mysterious plan makes clear that all are in need of His mercy.

God's mysterious plan reveals that all glory belongs to the God of infinite wisdom.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage?
2. What is the mystery that is spelled out in Romans 11:25-26?
3. In Romans 11:32, what is the good outcome of all being given over to their disobedience?
4. Why do reminders of God's mercy help protect us from becoming wise in our own sight?
5. How are you personally tempted to feel wise in your own eyes?
6. What does it mean to say that God's judgements are unsearchable and His ways are inscrutable?
7. What 3 questions are asked in Romans 11:34-35? What is the implied answer to all 3 questions?
8. Why does all glory belong to God? How does knowing this reality impact your life personally?