

Is God Finished with Israel? - Romans 11:1-10

God has NOT completely and forever rejected His people, Israel.

We know that God has NOT completely and forever rejected His people, Israel, because He preserved a remnant from among them.

God kept for Himself a remnant of Israel who were chosen by grace while the rest were justly hardened for their disobedient and contrary hearts.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage?
2. Does there continue to be a remnant from among Israel of persons who believe in Jesus for salvation? Do you know any such persons?
3. Have you ever felt like Elijah, that you were all alone as a true believer in Jesus?
4. Why is it good to remember that we are not alone.
5. What does it mean to be "chosen by grace"?
6. How does it impact you to remember that your salvation is not in any way earned or deserved but is all of grace?
7. Who are you praying for that has not believed in Jesus for salvation? How does today's passage inform your prayers for them?