

Authentic Christian Living - Romans 12:9-10

Truly love one another.

Deeply hate evil and cling to good.

Have a family affection for one another that competes at showing honor.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage?
2. What is the difference between genuine love and not genuine love?
3. Why is genuine love so critical to the Christian life? (See also Galatians 5:22-23, John 13:35, & I Corinthians 13:1-3.)
4. What will motivate our genuine love as believers? (See Romans 8:31-39.)
5. What evil are we called to hate first and most? (See Luke 6:39-42.)
6. What does hatred of evil look like in your own life?
7. Why is it important that we not only hate evil but cling to what is good? (See Ephesians 4:22-32.)
8. The call to love one another as family leads us to more than just superficial relationships in the church. What can you do to strengthen and deepen your relationships with other believers?