

Love and the Law - Romans 13:8-10

We owe a debt of love to one another.

We must love one another for love fulfills the law.

Love fulfills the law because it treats others the way we want to be treated and does no harm to its' neighbor.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage?
2. What is love? (See I John 3:16)
3. Who are we to love? (See Leviticus 19:18 & Luke 10:25-37)
4. Why do we always owe a debt of love to others? (See I John 4:20-21 & Matthew 25:40)
5. What will happen if we seek to obey God's law without a heart of love for others?
6. What will happen if our love and affection for others is not guided by God's moral commands?
7. How can we have a growing heart of love for others? (See Romans 5:5)
8. How do you need to grow in love?