

Acceptable Differences - Romans 14:1-12

Both the weak and the strong Christian should accept one another without quarreling or judgement.

Both the weak and the strong Christian should do all things with thanksgiving to God and to honor the Lord.

Both the weak and the strong Christian should remember that they will stand before the Lord and give an account to God for their own lives.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage?
2. What is the difference between the weak and strong Christians in our passage?
3. Do you relate more to the weak or strong Christians? Why?
4. What are some examples today where Christians may disagree over non-essential concerns?
5. How can we discern if something is essential to agree upon or not?
6. Why is it so important that we accept one another without quarreling and judgement despite disagreeing on a non-essential matter?
7. Do you need to let go of judging or despising a fellow Christian with whom you disagree over a non-essential concern?