Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage and message?
2. Last week we saw the call for Joshua and Israel to be strong and courageous. How does Rahab show such strength and courage?
3. What does the courage of Rahab flow from? What does she fear more than the king of Jericho?
4. How has the fear of the Lord and the fear of His coming judgement led us to take steps of faith that are similar to Rahab's?
5. In verses 9-11, what things does Rahab profess to be true of the Lord?
6. Just as Rahab and her family are given a sign to mark them off for God's mercy instead of His judgement, what signs have been given to us that mark us off for God's mercy?
7. How might this story help us to see the need to warn the lost about the wrath to come (I Thessalonians 1:10)?
