

The Obedience that Flows from Faith – Joshua 15:1-19:51

Wholehearted obedience.

Incomplete obedience.

Delayed obedience.

Questions for Discussion & Application

1. What questions do you have about today's passage and message?
2. How do we see the wholehearted obedience of Caleb in Joshua 15:13-14?
3. Caleb's obedience flowed from his faith in God and confidence in God's promises. Why is such faith in God always the path to true obedience? What example can you give of this being true from your own life?
4. We see the incomplete obedience of the tribes of Judah, Ephraim, and Manasseh in Joshua 15:63, 16:10, & 17:12. Why is this significant? What can we learn from this about our calling to put sin to death instead of trying to manage it?
5. The reluctance of the tribes of Benjamin, Simeon, Zebulun, Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Dan to take possession of the land was confronted by Joshua in Joshua 18:3. Delaying our obedience is a form of disobedience that we too must confront in our own lives. Is there an area where you are delaying to obey what God's Word instructs you to do?
6. In Joshua 19:49-50 we see the reward of Joshua's wholehearted faith and obedience. How have you experienced God's blessings as the fruit of your obedience that flows from faith?
